

The case for contactless payments.

Simple, safe, touch-free convenience works for merchants and consumers.

It's the preferred way to pay.

Shoppers want it, shopkeepers encourage it: Tapping to pay is here to stay.

7 out of 10

merchants say that since the COVID-19 outbreak, customers have requested contactless.

73%

of merchants agree that since the COVID-19 outbreak, they prefer customers to pay with a card or app, instead of having to handle cash.

